

Archives

Our archives pages pull together much of the written down history of our Church since 1936 – by no means a complete record, but an attempt to collate and preserve those words which have been carefully written and recorded by our predecessors at SMC.

We shall be eternally grateful for their conscientious guardianship of our history.