

Musical Evening at Ruxley

An evening of musical entertainment featuring Soiree on Saturday 16th November, 7:30 for 7:45pm at Ruxley Church, Ruxley Lane.

Soiree are Sue Graves, Hector Gilchrist and Steve Poole. They sing a variety of beautiful songs, with fine harmony vocals, harmonica and acoustic guitars. Their aim is to create the warm, relaxing atmosphere of a satisfying musical evening spent with friends. Performing material that is melodic, inspiring, accessible and mostly of a positive bent, Soiree draw widely from the best of contemporary songs, the Tradition and jazz standards, along with the odd tear-jerker and even a bit of dusted down Rock 'n' Roll! Mostly songs you know and a few hidden gems too, including some of their own.

Our aim is to enjoy ourselves in your good company – and hopefully leave you feeling happier afterwards than before. After all, that is the purpose of a good Soiree!

“What a stunningly refreshing night last night! I can't remember when I've enjoyed just sitting and listening quite so much – the three of you make such a wonderful sound” (George Wilson, Woolston & Bursledon Folk Club).

“Dear Hector, I'm still soaking up the joys of last night's performance by Soiree at Chesham. It was a superb evening, the singing and playing were truly great, and I hope the Group is able to return again soon.” (Geoff Knowles, Tudor Folk).

Tickets £5, children free from 020 8330 0641 or the Church Office 020 8394 1081 (9:00-11:30 weekdays).